

In support of missing children

CUE Center For Missing Persons

Community United Effort
PO Box 12714
Wilmington, N.C. 28405
e-mail: cuecenter@aol.com
www.ncmissingpersons.org

Contact:
(910) 343-1131
(910) 232-1687

Organizers Seek Volunteers for Committees

The 9th Annual National Missing Persons Conference Slated for Wilmington

Wilmington, N.C. – CUE Center for Missing Persons is now seeking committee chairperson(s) and volunteers to aid in the ninth annual national missing persons round table conference.

The conference “A Pathway to Resolution” is slated for March 21st thru the 24th of 2013 welcoming guest from across the nation. In preparation for this event organizers will host committee meetings in Wilmington once a month, the next meeting will be held on August 19, 2012 at 3:00 pm “Fairfield Inn Hotel, 307 Eastwood Road Wilmington, NC 28403

This important event will offer some of the most elite training that will focus on improving communication among agencies, learning about each other’s services, exchanging ideas, and creating a unified support system for victims left behind.

In March the group along with government officials from North Carolina plan to welcome over two – hundred and fifty families of the missing, victims of homicide and other sectors that provide aid to cases including advocates, private investigators, law enforcement, legal officials, forensic specialists, search-and-rescue groups, and public agencies.

In addition to providing a place where families of the missing can find support and professionals can network, the conference promises to be educational and informative, presenting new technology and offering ideas to make a difference in the way missing person’s cases are handled and utilizing new techniques for solving cases.

The national candle-light service will take place during the conference weekend on Saturday, March 23rd in downtown Wilmington at Riverfront Park, scheduled to begin promptly at 7:30 pm. This touching waterfront ceremony will include guest speakers, vocal tributes, presentation of the "Keeper of the Flame Award" and the unveiling of a wall. This dedication displays hundreds of faces of the missing and is dedicated in memory of three selected cases of once missing persons, found deceased due to crime-related circumstance.

Those interested in participating as an attendee and would like to register or volunteer for a committee in this national movement please contact the CUE Center for Missing Persons anytime at (910) 343-1131 or the 2013 event coordinator Lori Roberts at (910) 922-5661.

You can also email CUE at cuecenter@aol.com. or visit their website for all instructors, guest speakers and slated highlighted events throughout the weekend's conference. www.ncmissingpersons.org

Visit link below to see the complete line up and active updates
<http://www.ncmissingpersons.org/national-conference-2/>

Committee meetings (monthly) 3:00 pm

Fairfield Inn Hotel
307 Eastwood Road Wilmington, NC 28403
Details contact Lori Roberts @ (910) 922-5661

Candlelight Service and Dedication Ceremony

Where: Riverfront Park – Downtown Waterfront, Wilmington, NC
Date: Saturday, March 23, 2013
Time: 7:30 p.m.
Candles will be provided to all who attend.

National Round Table Conference 2013

Where: Courtyard by Marriott Carolina Beach, NC
100 Charlotte Avenue Carolina Beach, NC 28428
Hotel link <http://www.courtyardcarolinabeach.com/>

Note: Reservations must be made through the CUE Center for Missing Persons Dates: March 21-24 of 2013

The non-profit CUE Center strongly focuses on searching for the missing, advocating for their cause and providing support to the families of the missing. Since its inception, CUE has helped more than 9,000 families in what is often the most confusing and desperate times of their lives.